

Dear readers,

The interest in the scientific and technical journal of “Almaz – Antey” Air and Space Defence Corporation, as well as the number of topics of the published articles are increasing every year. 123 articles were submitted to the journal for publication in 2017, which is almost twice as many as in 2016.

May we remind you that on the Corporation website www.almaz-antey.ru/about/618 anyone can subscribe to a free e-mail distribution of journal issues in e-format preceding the print version issue.

Looking forward to your new and interesting scientific articles, as well as feedback, proposals, and questions regarding publication that can be sent to my e-mail antey@inbox.ru or communicated by calling +7 (495) 276-26-13. Please be reminded that we admit papers from any Russian and international organizations, the publication is free of charge.
